Billing

Uses authorized budget information to bill clients for the concepts they have requested.

Mexico requires Electronic Billing to be "stamped", a process this tool performs without the need to re-enter information in any external system.